The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance, including marijuana, which remains illegal under federal law. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

Supporting Evidence: On January 25, 2017, the undersigned officer received a phone call from staff at the Spokane Residential Reentry Center (RRC) who indicated that the client had admitted to bringing marijuana into the facility. Staff advised that the amount was roughly half the size of one's fist, and was located in the client's shoe under his bunk after a search was conducted, at which point the client confessed to the introduction of the contraband.

On January 26, 2017, the client reported to the U.S. Probation Office in Spokane as directed to further discuss the aforementioned and admitted behavior. The client admitted to the undersigned officer that he did have the marijuana on his person upon entering the Spokane RRC; however, stated he had forgotten that he had the substance on his person and stated that it was given to him by a previous acquaintance at the Spokane Transit Authority Plaza at random and that in turn, he was just going to give it to someone else that he happened to know, if he ran into such a person. The client indicated that he felt the amount of marijuana on his person was closer to the size of a golf ball.

- 2 Special Condition # 24: You shall reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period of up to 180 days at the direction of the supervising officer. Your participation in the programs offered by the RRC is limited to employment, education, treatment, and religious services at the direction of the supervising officer. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility.

Supporting Evidence: On January 25, 2017, the undersigned officer received a phone call from staff at the Spokane RRC who indicated that the client was being unsuccessfully discharged from the program effective January 26, 2017, due to his admitted violation of program rules and possession of marijuana while entering the Spokane RRC.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a summons requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
